Public Works- Nick Brinkman:

*Ford Street work started on 04/1/24

* Still no quotes on Gazebo repairs

* For sidewalks that need repair, Pro Construction quoted 4 inch slabs at $14 Sq and 6 inch slabs at $16 Sq

Mayor- Norm Itjen

- *On May 17th the HS NHS students will be available to help with projects at the park. Start time will be 9am and they will help with the picnic tables in the large Pavilion. They will be stripped of staples and repainted. There will be mulching projects too if needed.
- *We had some residents ask if we can purchase a new swing for the park that is handicap accessible and also replace the older swings. There was another request for better volleyball lines at the net in the park. The mayor will look into options for the swings.
- * There has been some damage at the park and the Mayor would like to look into getting cameras for the front and the back. Quotes and info to come.

Clerk-Treasure-Jerah Augello:

- *Banners for Veterans are in beginning stages with Terry Signs
- *Eclipse Event will be in April 8th and street signs are ready

*A motion and resolution to modify and adopt amended local law is attached.
